

A perfect setting

THIS MONTH'S 'DANDY' FASHION SHOOT WAS SHOT IN THE EXQUISITE GARDENS OF KINGS WALDEN

Kings Walden Garden Manor, just outside Tzaneen in Limpopo, is a hip heritage hotel renowned for its beautiful gardens and dramatic lightning tree. The hotel has been in the Hilton-Barber family for over 100 years and is the setting for Bridget Hilton-Barber's book, Garden Of My Ancestors.

Kings Walden combines European excellence and African warmth and legend against a spectacular mountain backdrop. Set in an incredible garden, the six luxury rooms are sexy, with clean, elegant lines and warm, luxurious details. Hoteliers Steven and Sophie Jacobs are no strangers to the fashion industry, having catered for many fashionistas - including Belgian designer Raf Simons. Steven's famed cuisine is made up of imported speciality ingredients combined with fresh, local organic produce. Some of his favourite ingredients include sea bass, Scottish salmon, duck breast, French rack of Karoo lamb, artichokes, asparagus, tomato confit, wasabi and lots of fresh herbs and flowers.

Turn to page 102 of this issue to see the breathtaking shoot, shot on location at Kings Walden. For information call 015-307-3262 or 079-396-7830, e-mail info@kingswalden.co.za or visit Kingswalden.co.za.